

Kentucky Writing Project

2012 Summer Academies

Focus on English Learners & Culturally/Linguistically Diverse Students

Meeting the new Common Core Standards for literacy

P-12, all contents

8:30-3:00 daily — 3 days — 18 hours PD credit provided

Registration Price: $75

We'll focus on the language learning needs of ELs as they relate to KCAS standards, and on how to integrate language in content areas for all students (per the standards outlined in KCAS). Teacher Leaders will demonstrate projects from their own classrooms and engage participants in developing materials for use in 2012-2013. Successful participants will receive a $100 stipend.

Registration fee: $75 per person entitles you to the following:

- ◆ Experienced Teacher Leaders to assist you in learning about meeting students' needs
- ◆ Resources to take back to your school
- ◆ Research-based strategies for improving student learning and literacy
- ◆ TIME and assistance as you develop your plan for a classroom project
- ◆ Opportunities for follow-up on-line and at our Fall Conference

Full participation will entitle you to a $100 stipend, plus 18 hours of professional development credit.

Stipends will be awarded to participants who complete a plan during the academy, then submit documentation by Sept. 15 that shows (1) how they have shared their new learning with their schools or districts; and (2) how they have initiated new strategies in the classroom to support EL/CLD students in meeting the Common Core Standards (KCAS).
